

PRESS RELEASE

“Karmic Reflections: Talking with Men and Nature” shows the reader the reality of the reflections from the Mirror of Life are not in sync with our fantasy: the Reality behind the Superficial Appearance. We like to think and believe, but know not. Only a few possess the inner knowledge which leads to Wisdom. Karmic Reflections points a light on the reality behind the Superficial Appearance.

This book leads the reader back into contact with one’s own essence of Life. The presented stories act like reflections from a mirror which show how to open up for reality in order to reach self-realization and subsequently enrich one’s Inner Strength.

The stories deal with the essence of Nature. Nature is able to teach and tutor us what we need to know. Pauline and John communicate with Nature by means of energy. This is done by posing questions and by listening to answers in silence. They enjoy Nature by communion without any prejudice. By doing so their own truth is complemented and supplemented with Nature’s Truth; the Truth of the World of Energy that lies nor fantasizes.

By reading Karmic Reflections one is provided a unique peeping hole into Life and is presented with the possibility to have a clear sight on one’s own Life.
